

Henry David Thoreau's Birthday
Open Nature Poetry Night

Have you visited Prophetstown State Park and felt inspired by the grasses, flowers, and other wildness around you? Share your work at our Nature Poetry Night!

Who: Children and Adults, first time and lifelong poets

What: 25 lines or less in any style expressing your thoughts, feelings, memories, etc about anything connected to our park

When: Saturday July 12th, 2014 at 6:30 pm

Where: Prairie View Picnic Area, Prophetstown State Park (ask for a map at the main gate if necessary)

*Parents Please Note- Nature can be a very emotional subject matter for many people. Please use judgment in bringing young children to this event.

"In wildness is the preservation of the world"

-Henry David Thoreau

